

STRATEGY "IN" EXECUTION

FEB 15-16, 2022

OVERVIEW

Flexibility & agility are the rules in today's reconfigured business world. Leadership must learn to adapt, trust their front-line employees, and allow them to choose a winning strategy that works now; not what worked five years ago, five months ago, even five minutes ago. Execution itself has become the strategy.

This program outlines a logical methodology for conducting business in the modern world, where change always lurks on the horizon.

In this program, you will also learn how to arm your troops more effectively and help them execute strategy on the front lines.

It builds on four basic premises: Interdependency, Fluidity, Speed, and Validity.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Reveal what prevents leaders from quickly driving strategic initiatives and getting great results from their teams.
 - Equip leaders with the knowledge, skills, and inspiration to help them hit the ground running!
 - Include an execution assessment, group reading guides & bonus self development resources.
 - It builds on four basic premises: interdependency, fluidity, speed, and validity.
